

Eddy K

Milano, since 1994 — find the one.

A PROPOSAL PREPARED FOR EDDY K

Growth plan · 90 days

ITALIA · DREAMS · MILANO COUTURE · CURVY · SKY — 500+ BOUTIQUES IN NEARLY 30 COUNTRIES

Brides already love Eddy K online. This plan takes that love to every screen: a hero commercial shot like a fashion house, a feed where every post leads somewhere, and campaigns that open the next boutiques around the world.

You've won the feed. Now, every screen.

Eddy K has walked brides down the aisle since 1994: Italian design, five collections and 250 gowns from size 0 to 32W, carried by more than 500 boutiques in nearly 30 countries.

Online, it's one of the most-loved houses in bridal. Around 156K followers on Instagram and more than 124K on TikTok, built organically. Brides save the gowns, share them and send them to their mothers every day. That's the hardest part of marketing, and Eddy K already did it.

The plan adds what organic alone can't: a hero commercial that puts the brand in front of brides who haven't found it yet, a clear next step on every post, and a retailer campaign that brings Eddy K into more stores, in more cities and more countries.

BRIDES ALREADY STOP FOR EDDY K. THE NEXT MILLION JUST HAVEN'T SEEN IT YET.

Every like is a future bride.

OUR JOB: SCALE WHAT ALREADY WORKS

five collections, every body ↓

REACH

500+ boutiques in nearly 30 countries. The bride's nearest one is a form away.

COMMUNITY

156K on Instagram, 124K+ on TikTok, grown organically, gown by gown.

EVERY BODY

Bridal sizes 0-28, Curvy 16W-32W, and custom sizing.

PURPOSE

Every gown supports Plan International through My Day · Her Future.

What already works, and what we add to it

We went through your feed, your site and your network. Nothing needs fixing. Every part of this plan builds on something Eddy K already does well.

EDDY K TODAY

WHAT TGS ADDS

STREAM

A community brides trust

Hundreds of thousands of followers across Instagram and TikTok, grown without paid reach.

A hero commercial

One big-budget film that takes the brand from the feed to every screen: YouTube, Meta, TikTok and bridal markets.

HERO FILM

Gowns that stop the scroll

Five collections, photographed beautifully, season after season.

Cinema that shows them move

The lace, the train, the turn: cinema-grade reels every month, shot on your 2027 samples.

CINEMA

Posts people love

Saves, shares and comments from brides planning their day.

A next step on every post

"Book a try-on", "Which one are you?", "Find your boutique": captions and Stories that start the conversation.

ENGAGEMENT

500+ boutiques worldwide

A network built over 30 years, in nearly 30 countries.

New boutiques, new markets

A retailer cut of the film and a "Carry Eddy K" campaign aimed at bridal-shop owners.

NEW STORES

A family story and real brides

Eddy, Addy and Andrea, the Real Brides journal, My Day · Her Future.

Stories told on film

The house, the brides and the girls each gown supports, on camera, with permission.

STORY

A strong site and visit form

Collections, a style quiz and a form that routes to the nearest boutique.

More of the right traffic

Every campaign lands on the site you already have, tracked with the Meta pixel and Conversions API.

GROWTH

A bigger stage

The houses that lead bridal pair a strong feed with a film people remember. Eddy K already has the feed and the following. This plan adds the film, and points all of it at the next boutique and the next bride.

THE HERO CAMPAIGN • INCLUDED IN THE PLAN

One film. Every screen.

A big-budget commercial for the house of Eddy K, shot like a fashion house on location with a full crew. Then it's cut for every place a bride, or a boutique owner, will see it this season.

• REC A001_C014 • EDDY K • FIND THE ONE

2.39:1 • 23.976

THE CONCEPT

Five brides, five collections, one day. Each one finds the gown made for her: Italia among the olive trees, Dreams on the coast, Milano Couture in a palazzo, Curvy and Sky in the city. The film ends where every Eddy K story ends: "Find the one. Near you."

CHOSEN TOGETHER IN MONTH 1

Location (Italian coast, a Milano palazzo or a vineyard closer to home), the hero gowns from your 2027 samples, casting, and the music.

THE FILM

60-90 s hero

Plus 30, 15 and 6 s cutdowns for every placement.

VERTICAL

9:16 versions

Reels, Stories, TikTok and YouTube Shorts.

THE STILLS

Campaign photos

For ads, boutiques, press and the lookbook.

BEHIND THE SCENES

The making-of

A short series, and content for weeks.

01

Bigger reach

YouTube, Meta and TikTok placements in the U.S., Canada and the markets you choose next.

02

New stores

A retailer cut that ends on "Carry Eddy K", made for bridal-shop owners and buyers.

03

Every boutique

The film and stills shared with your 500+ retailers to post in their own name.

Production budget. Location, cast, permits and travel are set together in month 1 and paid directly, like the ad budget. TGS directs, shoots and edits the film as part of the plan.

The SMART goal

One goal behind every film, every campaign and every report.

THE GOAL, IN ONE LINE

Take Eddy K from the most-loved feed in bridal to the name brides ask for worldwide: launch the hero film, turn engagement into booked try-ons and open new boutiques, in 90 days.

THE PLAN AT A GLANCE

Specific: brides and boutiques

Newly engaged brides in the U.S., Canada and new markets, planning 2027 and 2028 weddings, plus independent bridal shops looking for their next designer.

M

Measurable: reach, try-ons, retailers

Film views and completion, saves and shares, visit requests from the campaigns, "Become a retailer" applications and new boutiques signed.

Achievable: built on what already works

A large organic community, five collections, 500+ boutiques, a visit form and a style quiz already live. The audience is there. The film and the call to action are what's missing.

R

Relevant: awareness becomes orders

Brides ask for gowns by name, boutiques reorder what brides ask for, and every new boutique opens a new city.

T

Time-bound: 90 days

Month 1: shoot. Month 2: launch the film through engagement season. Month 3: scale into new markets for the January try-on rush.

Our commitment. Strategy, the hero film, content, campaigns and reporting are on us. What happens in the fitting room (the try-on, the order, the boutique's price) is measured, not promised.

She says yes

From the film to the fitting room

A gown is the most researched thing a bride buys. She saves, compares and sends screenshots long before she books. The plan follows the whole path, and the boutique's path too.

See it

The hero film, before her video or between her saved wedding boards: the gown in motion, on location.

Book a try-on

One tap from the post, the Story or the ad opens your visit form, sent to the nearest boutique.

She says yes

After the wedding, her day becomes the next Real Bride story, and the next post.

Save it

She saves the reel and answers "Which one are you?" in the comments, then sends it to her mother.

Try it on

She walks in asking for Eddy K by name, and the boutique already has the gown.

Reorders

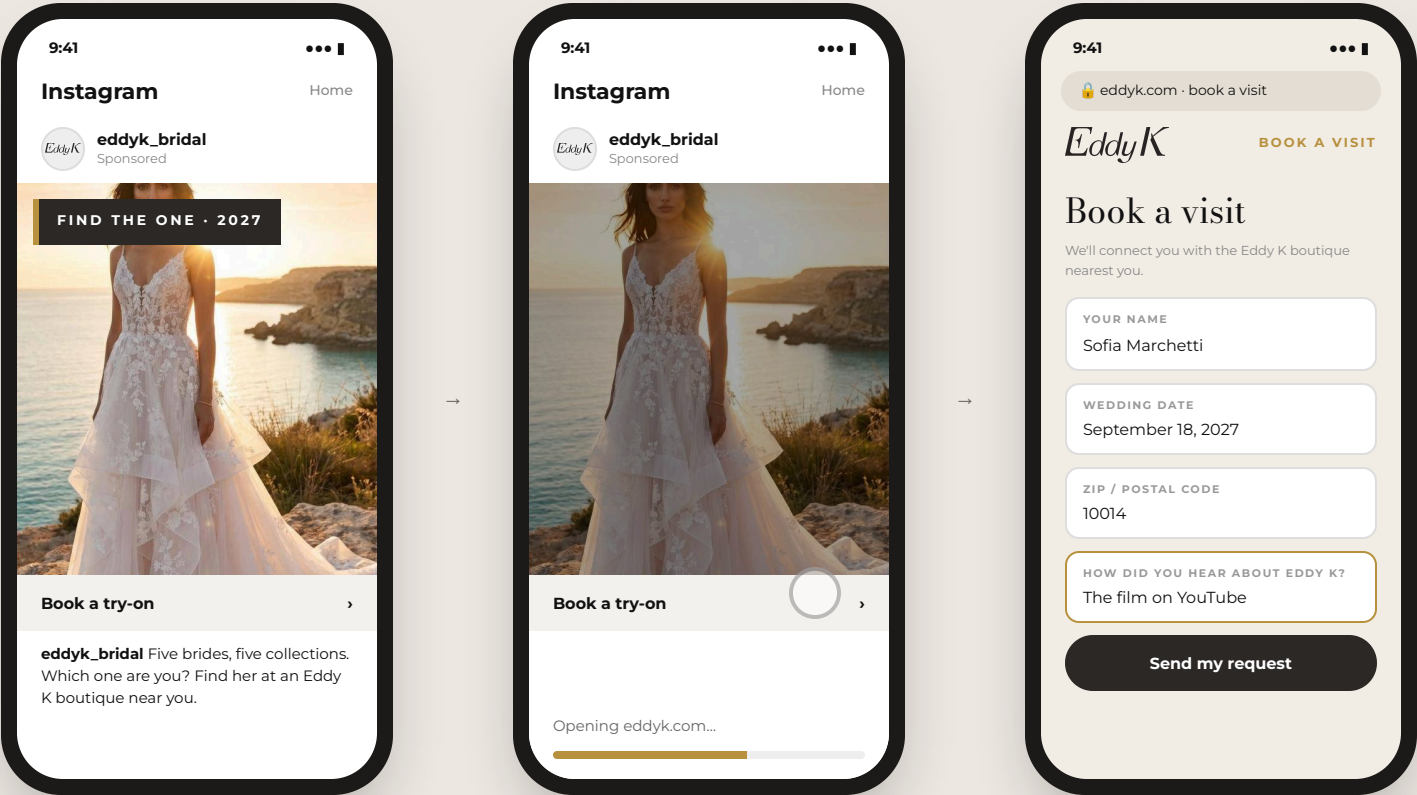

Your family is your edge. Most bridal labels sell a look. Eddy K is a father who opened a house of gowns in Milan in 1994, and a son and his wife, Addy and Andrea, who carry it worldwide, with a promise to a girl stitched into every gown. Nobody else can tell that story. The hero film puts it on screen.

Scroll, tap, try it on

What a bride sees, taps and fills in, in under a minute. The third screen is your site, as it is today: we only send it more brides.

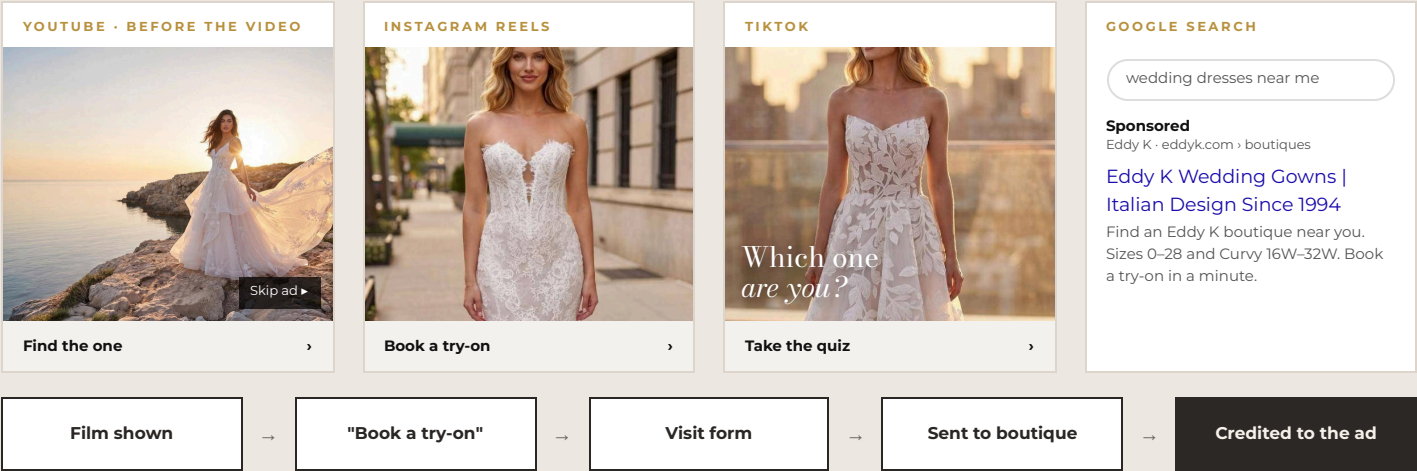

- 1 SEE THE FILM

Fifteen seconds of the hero film in her feed, between the accounts she follows and the boards she saves.
- 2 TAP "BOOK A TRY-ON"

One tap opens your visit form. No DM waiting for a reply, no hunting for a store locator.
- 3 SEND THE REQUEST

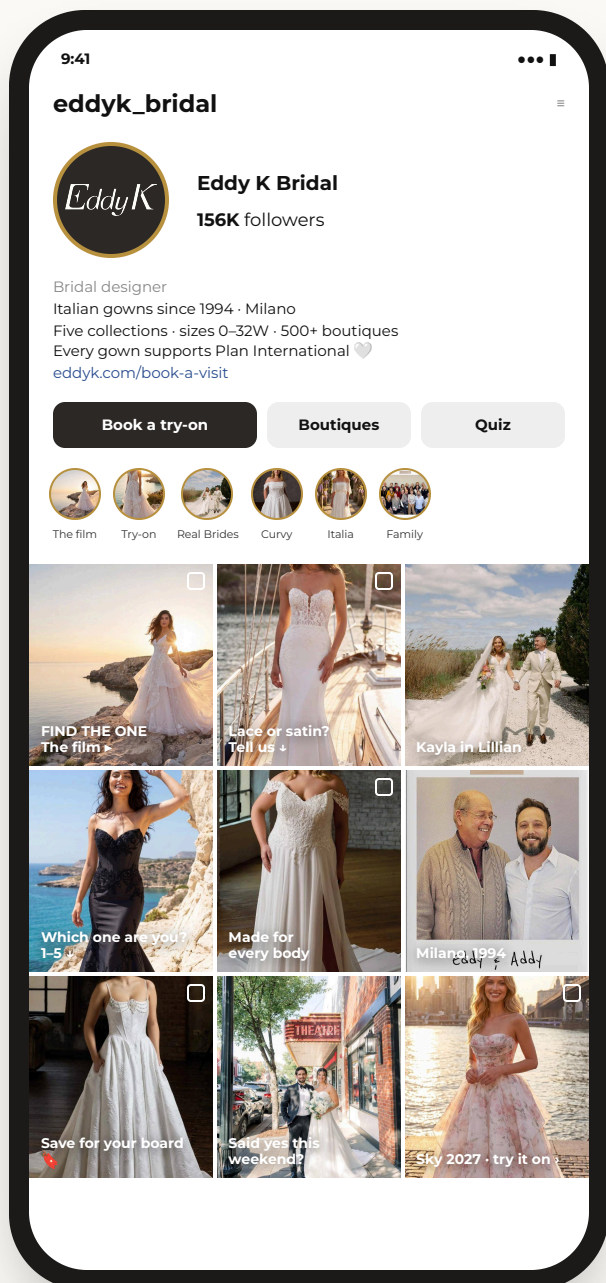

Your existing form, tracked by the pixel and Conversions API: sent to the nearest boutique, credited to the ad.

SAME FILM, FOUR PLACEMENTS, ONE VISIT FORM

The feed you love, with a next step

A mockup of @eddyk_bridal after one quarter. Same look, same voice, same rhythm. We don't replace what works: we give every post a reason to comment, save, share or book.

1 A first line that asks

Every caption opens with a question or a choice ("Lace or satin?", "Which collection are you?") that brides answer in the comments.

2 A clear call to action

"Book a try-on", "Find your boutique", "Save for your board": one per post, on Reels, carousels and Stories.

3 Stories that talk back

Polls, quizzes and question boxes every week, with a link sticker to the visit form.

4 Comment to receive

"Comment FIND for your nearest boutique": an automated DM sends the link, and the bride is one tap from booking.

5 Highlights that convert

The film, Try-on, Real Brides, Curvy, collections and the family: covered in your palette, pinned for every new visitor.

THE SAME POST, WITH A NEXT STEP

Before: Alba, from the new Dreams collection 💕

After: Lace or satin? 💕 Alba, from the new Dreams collection, is pure lace from neckline to train. Tell us which one you'd choose, and book your try-on at the Eddy K boutique nearest you (link in bio).

Illustrative mockup. Your aesthetic, voice and posting rhythm stay exactly as they are; final content is approved by your team.

Who we're talking to

Two brides at different points of the same year, and the boutique that dresses them both.

SKY 2027

The newly engaged

Said yes over the holidays, wedding in 2027. A ring, a board full of saved gowns, and 8 to 10 months to order the dress. She already follows two or three bridal houses.

Best approach: the hero film on YouTube and Reels, "Which one are you?", the style quiz, "Book a try-on".

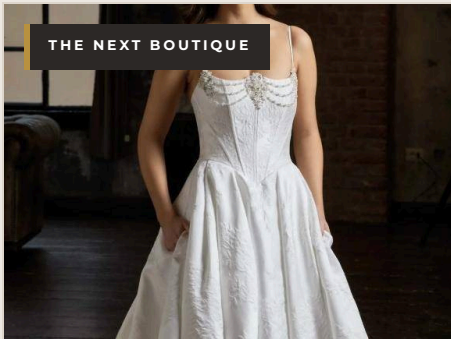

CURVY 2027

The Curvy bride

Sizes 16W to 32W, and tired of trying on samples that don't fit. Before she drives an hour, she wants to know her boutique has something made for her.

Best approach: a Curvy bride in the hero film, real Curvy brides in the feed, "Mention Curvy when you book."

THE NEXT BOUTIQUE

The boutique owner

An independent bridal shop, in a city or country Eddy K hasn't reached yet, looking for its next designer: one that sends brides through the door.

Best approach: the retailer cut of the film, LinkedIn and Meta aimed at shop owners and buyers, "Become a retailer."

WHAT MATTERS TO THEM

- Seeing the gown move before the appointment
- Knowing her size will be there when she arrives
- A boutique close by, on a date that works
- For the shop: a designer brides already ask for

WHERE WE REACH THEM

- YouTube: the hero film, before the video
- Instagram and TikTok: Reels, Feed and Stories
- Google Search: "wedding dresses near me"
- Meta and LinkedIn: bridal-shop owners and buyers

WHY A HERO FILM

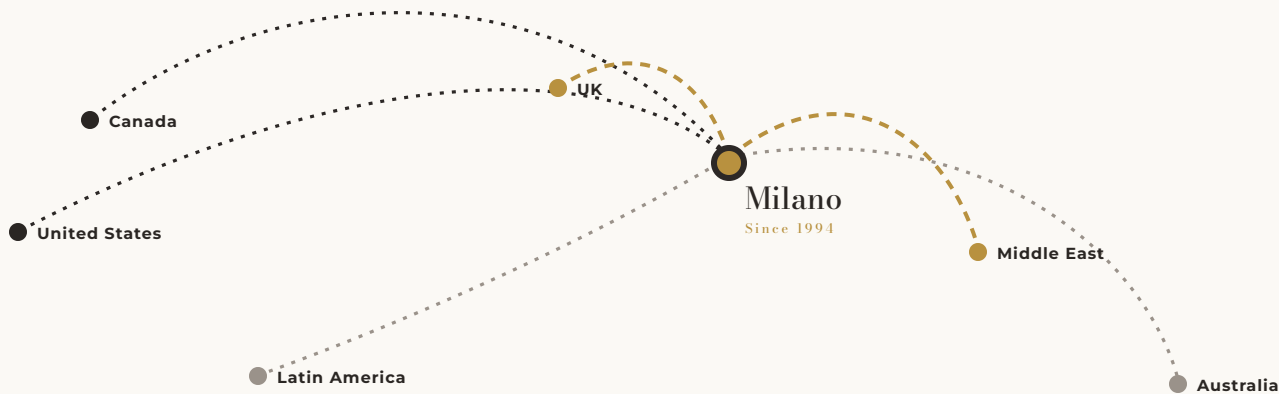

A product photo says "beautiful dress." A film of the same gown, on a cliff at sunset with the train in the wind, says "that's my wedding." The first gets a save. The second gets a booking, and a boutique that wants to carry it.

From Milano to every continent

Eddy K is already in nearly 30 countries. The film doesn't stop at a border: each month, the campaigns go deeper where you are and open the next market, with the boutiques that will carry you there.

- Deepen: where your boutiques already are
- Open: markets chosen together in month 1 (illustrative)
- Next: countries ready for the film after 90 days

MONTHS 1-2 • DEEPEN

U.S. & Canada

AFTER 90 DAYS • GO GLOBAL

Shops choosing their next designer for 2027.

Why cinema. Brides compare everything. A cinema-grade film says it right away: this is a house, not a label. And a boutique owner watching it knows brides will ask for it.

Find the one. Near you.

Your signature becomes the campaign line. One idea, two audiences: the bride who wears the gown, and the boutique that carries it. Eddy K becomes the name in bridal, on film.
